THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the lofty patriotism, valor, talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malignity may now presume to forge against the war-worn and time-honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barricade against all opposition, are no less than the Congress of the United States, the LEGISLATURES OF INDIANA, and of KEN-TUCKY, JAMES MADISON, JAMES MONROE, COLONEL RICHARD M. JOHNSON, ANTHONY WAYNE, LANGDON CHEVES, SIMON SNYDER, GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. CROGHAN, COL. DAVIES, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even Thomas RITCHIE

We begin with the testimony of Colonel RICHARD M. JOHNSON, now Vice President of the United States.

Col. Johnson said, (in Congress)-

Col. Johnson said, (in Congress)—

"Who is Gen. Harrison? The son of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who spent the greater part of his large fortune in redeeming the pledge he then gave, of his 'fortune, life and sacred honor,' to eccure the liberties of his country.

"Of the career of Gen. Harrison I need not speak—the history of the West, is his history. For I rty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the cuncils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in he field.

"During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other General officer; he was, perhaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and nehaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and ne-ver sustained a defeat."

James Mantson, in a special message to Congress, Dec. 18, 1811, said,

While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ulti to, Congress will see with satisf ction the danutless spirit of fortitude victoriously displayed by every description of troops engaged, as reell as the collected framess which distinguished their commander on an occasion requiring the ulmost exertions of valour and discipline.

JAMES MADISON in his message to Congress, Nov. 1812, said,
An ample force from the States of Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars, under the command of Brigadier General Harauson, who pussesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by their personal merits.

In Mr. Madison's message of Dec. 1813,
the compliment was extended, as follows:

the compliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Erie having opened a passage to the territory of the enemy, the officer commanding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage force.

This result is signally honorable to Major General Harrison, by those military talents it was prepared.

EAL HARRISON, by rehose military talents it was prepared.

The following tribute of praise was paid to General Harrison, in 1811, by eleven of the officers who fought under his banner at the battle of Tippecanoc:

"Should our country again require our services to oppose a civilized or a savage foe, we should march under General Harrison with the most perfect confidence of victory and fame."

In the Legislature of Indiana, on the 12th Nov. 1811, the Spenker of the House of Representatives, Gen. Wm. Johnson, thus addressed Gen. Harrison:

"Sir—The House of Representatives of the Indiana territory, in their own name, and in behalf of their constituents, most cordially reciprocate the congravilations of your Excellency on the glorious result of the late sanguinary conflict with the Shawnee Prophet, and the tribes of Indians confederated with him; when we see displayed in behalf of our country, not only the consummate abilities of the general, but the heroism of the man; and when we take into view the benefits which must result to that into view the benefits which must result to that country from those exertions, we cannot, for a mo ment, withhold our meed of applause. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Kentucky, in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, Gov. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool, deliberate, skillul and gallant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation.

ALBANY LOCK HOSPITAL.

ALBANY LOCK HOSPITAL.

Dr. COOKE.

THE unfortunate are respectfully informed that the Albany Lock Hospital, established and modelled after the much celebrated European Lock Hospitals, has many years since been fonnded at Head Quarters, No. 3 Norton street, Albany, N. Y. To those unacquainted with this institution, it is necessary to mention that it has for its object the cure of all such diseases, as syphilis, scrofuls, strictures, diseases of the urethra, lumbago, flour albus, impotency, diseases of the womb, seminal weakness of both sexes, nodes, caries of the bones, gonorrhoze, gleets, with all venerial complaints in general, etc. etc.

Persons, ignorant of the nature of Disease, are not aware that many stages mark its progress from the commencement to its full development, originating in a most simple form, and through neglect or injudicious treatment, assume a more aggravated state of disease, and occasion abscess, ulceration, pseudo syphilis, cancer, premature old age, too often ending in a protracted incurable state of miserable existence.

This institution is under the squeerintendence and man-same a more aggravated subset of the season and access, ulceration, pseudo syphilis, cancer, premature old uge, too often ending in a protracted incurable state of miserable existence.

This institution is under the superintendence and management of Propressor Cooke, M. D., D. D., LL. D., of the city of Albany, N. Y., who will give his personal attendance at the Dispensary, attached to the Institution, at all hours to invalids requiring his professional services, He having had much more experience in this branch of medical practice than usually falls to the lot of any one member of the profession, therefore feels such confidence of his ability to give universal satisfaction, that he assures all applicants, none need despair of a complete recovery.

The unfortunate therefore, who have suffered from the want of success by those less experienced, are invited to visit the Hospital, which only requires to be known to be sure of support, where the most perfect secrecy may be depended on, and the utmost privacy will attend those who call. The whole house is exclusively appropriated to the use of patients, and at no time, unless at the request of the patient, will a third party be permitted to be present.

Professor Cooke has a number of handsomely furnish.

present.

Professor Cooke has a number of handsomely furnished private chambers, at No 33 Green street, where he will receive gentlemen who may require medical aid. Residing himself on the premises, he will thereby be enabled to dedicate more than ordinary attention to his patients.
Gentlemen will find it both convenient, as well as economical, in all cases of disease, to retire to these furnished rooms.

The Pectoral Essence of Boneset, universally known as an excellent cough medicine, is prepared at this institution. Its efficacy being decidedly superior to any specific extant, is every where recommended in all cases of coughs, colds, asthma, croup, hooping cough, as well as in all complaints of the chest and lungs. Travellers, therefore, ministers of the gospel, orators, public speakers, and families, should never be without their abundant sunplies.

As long as Professor Cooke desires to benefit the public, it is proper he should continue his advertisement, for the good of strangers, as it is well known, people are extremely shy in speaking of cases of a delicate nature, even tremely shy in speaking of cases of a delicate nature, even tremely shy in speaking of cases of a delicate nature, even tremely successful.

RICHMOND, Virginia, July 15, 1830.

THE PUBLIC will be pleased to understand that I was the original discoverer of Judkins' Ontment, and sole proprietor of the patent from September, 1817, until the expiration of the same; but having connected myself with Dr. Judkins in the commencement, I permitted the Unitment to bear his n-me. The term of the patent having expired on the 26th June, I have made an improvement in the same, and taken out a patent thereon.

Being aware that the Ontment would occasionally fall into many hands, some of whom would probably undertake to make it, and knowing the difficulty of the process nevertueless, it might be propagated in this adulterated state, as it might in some degree resemble the original—and in this way its good effects would be obliterated. Under these considerations, I secured the original and certain remedy for those obstinate diseases.some of which have so long builded the skill of medical science.

Mr. C. Herston, Frederick county, Md.—Hearing of your excellent medicine, now called Shepperd's Patent Specific Ointment (formerly Judkins) having been thirty-two weeks in the year of 1830, of suffering and pain from a bone fellon which would not heel, although I had a very able Physician, I was induced to make a trial of it, I purchased a pot of it at Doctor Gunton's in Washington—it completed cure in less than two weeks. You may publish this for the benefit of those who may be in my situation. I can confidently say it is one of the best medicines in the world for healing cuts, bruises, &c.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 11, 1830.

Doctor W. Gunten: Sir: I now undertake to do what I should have done long since. Two or three years my wife was afflicted with what the doctors call carbuncles on her back, and her sufferings from which for two ments, were beyond all description; they broke at different times into from fifty to one hundred holes, and when the cores were extracted and the skin cut off, the places became one large sore, about six inches in circumference, and were then an inch in depth. She was attended by one of the first physicians in this city, and various remedies were tried without rendering her any relief, or preventing the sores from increasing in size to such a degree, that we became seriously apprehensive that she would not survive much longer. A friend calling to see her one day, and advising the use of Judkins' now Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment, I procured some, and however incredible it may appear, yet such is the fact, two plasters effected a perfect cure.

Yours respectfully, G. CRANDELL.

Yours respectfully,

G. CRANDELL.

From the Hon. John Talliaferro, member of Congress.

Washington, Jan. 22, 1829.

To Mr. C. Herston, Frederick City, Md.

Sir: I thas been my wish, for a considerable time, to communicate to you the good effect with which I have used the ointment invented by Mr. Judkins, (patented now in the United States, Shepherd's Specific Ointment, and which I now understand is made and sold by agents appointed by yourself. I have applied this ointment, during the last three years, to every species of tumour or wound, without failure to produce a cure every instance. I consider it the most decided and efficient remedy in all cases of tumor, be the case what it may. I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description. It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumor called White Swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurable, and which they decided would, without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice effected by the use of the Ointment, and the patient is in fine health, the limb affected by the tumor being restored to a perfect state of soundness. Also, that the leg of an aged man, which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadful ulcerated surface from the knee to the foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cured by the application of the Ointment. I mention these two cases which fell under my immediate notice, and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumors and of ulcers. I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons, and of every species of flesh wounds. It seems to me that any one who will observe the operations of this Ointment must be satisfied as to its beneficial effects. I can with the utmost confidence, recommend the use of this valuable remedy. I am, sir, very respectfully.

Before leaving Boonsboro', I had heard much of an article in which you appear before the public as proprietor, named Herston Judkin's Patent Specific Ointment, made by C. Herston, near Frederick, Md., and of its decided efficacy in cures on persons with whom I am well acquainted. Since my residence in Baltimore, it has performed a cure on a friend of mine afflicted with piles. Having myself been a sufferer for some years with this distressing disease, I now unbesitatingly applied you ointment in my own case, and am gratified that I can say it made a perfect cure.

LETTER TO DR. GREEN.

DEAR FRIEND:—Some three years since, I made application to you to restore my hearing and eye-sight and, at the same time, for a friend of mine, Mr. Notton (caro) who was afflicted with a great degree of deafness. I mention these circumstances, to bring the matter fresh to your mind. We received your remedy, followed the prescriptions and were soon restored to the use of our ears and eyes—our general health also improved in the mean time, by the excellent advice you gave us on the sub-ect of health and long life.

A young man applied to me a few days since for information; he is afflicted with weak eyes; medical men here in our parts of the world, tell him that the optic serve is weak. I immediately referred him to you, as the only man in the circle of n y acquaintance, who could give relief in such cases; and he not conveniently able to write, I concluded to write myself, and at the same time enclose your customary five dollar fee, and request that which is necessary will quickly be sent on.

Be kind and send to me one of your psmphlets on the subjects of health, temperance and long life.

Yours, in friendship,
G. W. ELLLS, P. M.

THE MADISONIAN --- PROSPECTUS, 1840.

THE MADINIONIAN SUPPORTS in good faith, and with all its ability and energy, the nominations of the Harrisburg Convention, viz:

For PRESIDENT, WM. HENRY HARRISON, of Ohio.

For VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN TYLER, of Virginia.

Some of the reasons upon which its "uncompromising hostility to the re-election of Martin Van Buren" on the one hand, and its preference for General Harrison, on the other are founded, will be briefly set forth and contrasted as follows, to wit:

It epposes the re-election of Martin Van Buren, cause

L. No Chief Magistrate of this Union should remain in office more than one term.

2. Every prominent act of his administration has not only hampered the interests and prosperity of the country, but has been an open violation of the princ ples and professions of the Republican party.

3. The tendency of federal action under his administration is to absorb the powers of the State Governments, and to errect at Washington a despotic system of CENTRALISM AND CONSOLIDATION.

4. He is the instrument of a party, and not the President of the Union.

5. He is inaccessible to the neople—indifferent to their wants and interests—contemns their will, by refusire to acquiesce in the decisions of the majority—is selfish in his views, and s-ctional and partial in his action—entertains an estimate of human nature so low that it is degrading for an upright cuitizen to accept an office at his hands—acting upon the principle that the people are corrupt, and that every man has his price, bringing the partonage of his office in conflict with the freedom of their elections—assuming complete power over the people for himself, and disclaiming any duty in their behalf as incument on him in return.

6. He wants the whole moneyed power of the United States vested in him and under his control.

7. He will not agree that the patronage and power of the freedom of the rest of the will be constitution.

8. He wishes the States to surrender their right to the majority is the vital principle of Republics—two describes—in a partial in his action—enter the majority is the vital principle of Republics—two describes—and of the principle of Republics—two describes—and of the principle of Republics—two describes—in and under the control of the principle of Republics—two describes—in a principle of Republi 4. 13. He has been in office three years, received $75,000 of the public money, and has accomplished little else than running the ship of State off the republican tack.

14. He rests the merit of his administration upon one expedient, which he has failed to carry, and permits one pality question which involves a miserable warfare against the State Banks to engage his whole mind and occupy his time, proving him to be contracted in his views, and incapable of the comprehensive and magnanimous policy of a statesman.

6. He would have the public purse, not united with the sword, but kept in safety under the control of Congress as intended by the Constitution.

7. He agrees that Executive power has increased, is increasing and ought to be diminished, and will give his disinterested efforts to remedy the evil.

8 He would preserve or apply the public lands, as a common fund in accordance with the compact, for the benefit of all, and not a part, of the States.

9 He would restore the constitutional and Republican course of legislation, act as the executor, not the originator of laws, and limit the veto power generally to cases of constitutional doubt.

Thus every man in the Opposition may give the reasons of the faith that is in him. Thus have we a righteous cause, and unimpeachable candidates. But an active, wily and corrupt parry, armed with the power and patronage of the government, and led on and defended by a pensioned press and swarms of interested patrixans, struggle desperately against us. We have the means of beating them. Mr. Van Buren is already in a minority of the whole people of the Union, as the returns of the last iederal elections show. We can increase the majority against him. We can meet and repel the attacks of our enemies—refute their misrepresentations, and expose their faise-hoods and calumnies. Give free circulation to the truth, and a virtuous and discerning democracy will acclaim a triumph for liberty and the Farner of North Bend.

The MADISONIAN is recommended by the Whigs and Conservatives in Congress, to the support of the friends of the Harrisburg nominations.
